

Veterinary Services Europe 100th Medical Detachment (VS HQ)

Noncommissioned officer in charge, Veterinary Laboratory Europe

Sgt. 1st Class Dee A. Parham is a native of Okmulgee, Okla. She entered the Army on April 2, 1984 and attended Basic Training at Fort McClellan, Ala. and Advanced Individual Training at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

Throughout her 20 year career she has served in many leadership positions from section Noncommissioned officer in charge (NCOIC) to acting Detachment NCOIC to her current position as NCOIC Veterinary Laboratory Europe. Other assignments include, New York Metro Branch, Fort Dix N.J., 106th Medical Detachment, Seoul, Korea, Great Lakes Branch, Great Lakes Ill., 64th Medical Detachment (VS), Kaiserslautern Germany and Fort Belvoir Branch, Fort Belvoir Va.

Her military education includes the primary through advanced levels of the Noncommissioned Officers Education System.

Her awards and decorations include Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal (3), Army Achievement Medal (3) and the coveted German Marksmanship Award Schützenschnur (Silver).